ABSTRACT

A budgetary consistency check system is described, which operates on a working budget and a reference budget in respective databases, for performing budgetary consistency checks between arbitrary aggregation levels of an organization. Rules define relationships that must be maintained between the reference budget and the working budget. As modifications are made to the budgets, the rules may be executed online to determine whether the two budgets remain consistent with each other.

464110_1.DOC

11884/406801